

Looking back with Liberty!
Printable Worksheet

Our first adventure – Delaware and Sweden.

Wow! I hope you had fun on our first adventure! I sure did!

Let's see how much you can remember about all the great things we learned! Remember! You can find the answers in the pages of our storybook app!

There were 13 original colonies, which one became the first state? _____

Can you remember what the capital city of Delaware is? _____

What fruit and vegetable did Georgie tell us about? _____

What is Delaware's state tree? _____

What is Delaware's state bug? _____

What is the biggest city in Delaware? _____

Wilmington's sister city is in what country? _____

What is the name of the ocean we crossed to get to Sweden? _____

What is the name of the sister city to Wilmington, Delaware? _____

What colors are in Sweden's flag? _____

The country connection in this story was through a sister city!
Sister cities share ideas and traditions.

What were some of your favorite parts in our adventure?

What were your favorite parts of the story?

Can you find the state of Delaware on your map at home? _____

Can you find the country of Sweden on your map at home? _____

See you on our next Adventure! xo, Liberty Lane